COURSE LEVEL STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOME(S) Supported by this course:

1. Identify the cultural, political, historical, and institutional factors affecting the social construction of race and ethnic relations.

2. Analyze the cultural and institutional factors involved in race and ethnic relations, relating the macro-level to the micro-level.

3. Compare and contrast the experiences of groups that have been historically marginalized, particularly groups defined by ethnicity and race.

4. Analyze intersections of race and ethnicity with gender, class and other locations of identity.

5. Identify and analyze patterns of racial and ethnic interaction.

6. Identify, compare and contrast the experiences of major racial and ethnic groups.

7. Examine majority-minority group relations including issues such as power and privilege.

8. Evaluate debates on current socio-political racial and ethnic issues such as affirmative action, immigration policies, criminal justice policies, and the future of race and ethnic relations.

9. Differentiate concepts such as prejudice, discrimination, segregation, assimilation, and pluralism.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
